A STATEMENT showing the total receipterand disbursements of the Colony of Hongkong Mrs. Marsh has kindly consented to distribute voyage to Woosung. Fortunately no one was for the year 1886 was yesterday laid on the the prizes. table of the Legislative Council. From this table we gather the gratifying fact that the actual revenue last year exceeded the estimate by $93,004. The actual amount ] collected was $1,367,977.74, which is the largest revenue yet received in this colony, the Opium Farm is now yielding consider. It is true that the income from this source for last year shows a respectable increase on that of 1885; the amount being $178,500 as compared with $153,751 in the previous year, but in 1883 the opium revenue reached $246,449, and had for neveral years prior to that exceeded $200,000. nection with certain damaging articles which It is all the more satisfactory therefore to find appeared in that journal recently. the general revenue steadily increasing in spite of a large falling off from one branch. These were the chief items of increase, but the minor sources of revenue also compare most ved in Singapore on the 30th alt. by the P. & O. favourably with previous years, and there seems every reason to conclude that a farther augmentation of the revenue will be disclosed at the end of the present year. The estimated revenue for 1886 was $1,274,973, which has been exceeded by nearly a lakh of dollars, while the estimate for 1887 is $1,291,270, and we hope the actual revenue will show an excess ever the estimate equal to that displayed by the preceding year.

7th April. IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION

Before Mr. A. J. LEACH, ACTING PUISNE

Kong YAT v. LI Tong, $91.50. Mr. Mossop appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. Holmes for the defendant.

Mr. Mosson, in opening his case, said the plaintiff and the defendant were the proprietors of two rival passenger junks which ran from Hongkong to Yaumati. They had had severaldisputes; some time ago there was a dispute about a wharf over at Kowloon, which led to a claim created between the parties; he believed there was also a case at the Police Court arising out of the same affair. At all events, there was a great deal However that might be, he thought he would be able to satisfy his Lordship that the defendant was entirely to blame. The junks usually started the defendant's junk, which started a few minutes later, having fewer passengers was able to sail quicker. About the middle of the harbour, the to the right of the plaintiff's junk, got astern to pass to the left hand side, and in turning the bow caught the stern of the defendant's junk

Mr. Holmes said his instructions were entirey to the contrary of what had been stated by

Why at times such a guawing appetite, and then again such The San Francisco Chronicle has the following own official escort and will carry the law through disrelish for food? Why is the mind so frequently irritable, desponding, melancholy, and By the new Act Vancouver will bear all the dejected? Why does one often feel under the pprehension of some imaginary danger, and start at any unexpected noise, becoming agitated as though some great calamity was impending? What is the meaning of these dall, sick headaches; these violent palpitations of the heart, this feverish restlessness, these night sweats: this disturbed and dreamy sleep, whichbrings no refreshing rest, but only mounings and mutterings, and the horrors of the nightmare? of One Dozen or less, White Crystal Glass The answer is: These are but the symptoms | Bottles, Key Brand. of Indigestion or Dyspensia—the beginning and the forerunner of almost every other human Pomeranzen BITTERS. disease. Indigestion is a weakness or want of waste silk, 20 cases silks, 790 rolls matting, 55 power of the digestive fluids of the stomach to packages sundries, 4,200 lbs. hyson, and 1,050 convert the food into healthy matter for the RIDGES, SHOT, &c., &c., &c. proper nourishment of the body. It is caused most frequently by the irregularity of diet, or Nelle, (Rotterdam.) improper food, want of healthy exercise and pure outdoor air. It may be induced by mental 146 distress—the shock of some great calamity. It may be, and often is, aggravated and intensified if not originally brought on, by exhaustion from intense mental application, of physical overwork, THE HOUSEHOLD COMPANIONS, domestic troubles, anxiety in business, or finan-cial embarrassments. If the stomach could always be kept in order, death would no longer be a subject of fearful anxiety to the young and middle-sped, but what would be contemplated by all as the visit of an expected friend at the close of a peaceful and happy old age. However, the first hostile invades upon the domain of health and happiness i Undigestion.

Is there any relief, any remedy, any cure? That is the question of the suffering and unhappy dyspeptic. What is wanted is a medicine that will thoroughly renevate the stomach, bowels, liver, and kidneys, and afford speedy and effectual assistance to the digestive organs, and restore to the nervous and muscular systems their original energy. Such a medicine is happily at hand. Never in the history of medical discoveries, evidenced by a dozen years' thorough test, has there been found a remedy for Indigestion so speedy, so sure, and so surprising in its results as Beigel's Curative Syrup, but to-day it is a standard remedy for that almost universal affliction in every civilised military officers, bankers, merchants, ship Hongkong and Shanghai Bank Shares-148 captains, mechanics, farmers, and their wives and daughters, alike confirm its curative powers. NEARLY RAISED HIM FROM THE GRAVE Swiss Cottage, Walton-on-the-Naze,
